

Easter

British people have got four days' holiday at Easter. Easter is an important festival, but there aren't any big celebrations in the UK. In the shops, the only signs of Easter are Easter eggs, Easter cards and hot cross buns. Hot cross buns are a type of sweet bread with dried fruit in them. The buns have got a cross on them. It's traditional to eat hot cross buns on Good Friday, the first day of the Easter festival.

On Easter Sunday, people give presents of chocolate Easter eggs. The chocolate is sometimes in the shape of a rabbit. This is the Easter Bunny. Eggs and rabbits are symbols of new life.

On Easter Sunday, there's often an egg hunt. Parents hide small Easter eggs in the garden and children look for them. Young children think the Easter Bunny puts the eggs there. There are other Easter traditions with eggs. Some children paint real eggs in different colours and use them for decorations.

There are egg-rolling competitions in some villages on Easter Monday – the day after Easter Sunday. This day is a holiday in the UK. People roll hardboiled eggs down a hill. If your egg is the fastest, and it doesn't break, you're the winner!
